

Fair Processing Notice: What the School, Local Authority and Government do with Information they hold on Pupils.

Subject:

This leaflet tells you what the Welsh Government, Denbighshire Local Authority (LA) and your school do with your or your pupil's personal and performance information (data).

The collection of personal information:

The school collects information about pupils and their parents or legal guardians when they go to a new school; they also collect information at other times during the school year and information is also received from other schools when pupils transfer.

The LA and Welsh Government will receive information on pupils from the school, normally as part of what is called the Pupil Level Annual Schools Census which takes place in January each year.

The school, LA and Welsh Government receive information about exam and national curriculum assessment and test results.

The use made of this personal information:

The Welsh Government uses the information collected to do research, primarily to inform educational policy changes and funding. The research is done in a way that ensures individual pupils cannot be identified. Examples of the sort of statistics produced can be viewed at <http://wales.gov.uk/topics/educationandskills> or www.wales.gov.uk/statistics

The LA also uses the personal information collected to do research. It uses the results of the research to make decisions on policy and the funding of schools, to calculate the performance of schools and help them to set targets. The research is done in a way that ensures individual pupils cannot be identified.

The School uses the information it collects to administer the education it provides to pupils. For example:

- the provision of educational services to individuals;
- monitoring and reporting on pupils' educational progress;
- the provision of welfare, pastoral care and health services;
- the giving of support and guidance to pupils, their parents and legal guardians;
- the organisation of educational events and trips;
- planning and management of the school.

Organisations who may share personal information:

Information held by the School, LA and the Welsh Government on pupils, their parents or legal guardians may be shared with other organisations when the law allows, for example with:

- other education and training bodies, including schools and colleges, when pupils are applying for courses, training, school transfer or seeking guidance on opportunities;
- bodies doing research for the Welsh Government, LA and schools, for example Careers Wales, so long as steps are taken to keep the information secure;
- central and local government for the planning and provision of educational services;
- social services and other health and welfare organisations where there is a need to share information to protect and support individual pupils;
- various regulatory bodies, such as ombudsmen and inspection authorities, where the law requires that information be passed on so that they can do their work.

Personal information held:

The sort of personal information that will be held includes;

- personal details such as name, address, date of birth, and contact details for parents and guardians;
- information on performance in internal and national assessments and examinations;
- information on the ethnic origin and national identity of pupils (this is used only to prepare summary statistical analyses);
- medical information needed to keep pupils safe while in the care of the school;
- information on attendance and any disciplinary action taken;
- information on Exclusions from school and any disciplinary action;
- information about the involvement of social services with individual pupils where this is needed for the care of the pupil.

Other information:

The Welsh Government, LA and school will try to ensure that information is accurate and secure. Personal information will not be sent outside the United Kingdom.

Your rights under the Data Protection Act 1998:

The Data Protection Act 1998 gives individuals certain rights in respect of personal information held on them by any organisation. These rights include:

- the right to ask for and receive copies of the personal information held on you, although some information can sometimes be legitimately withheld;
- the right, in some circumstances, to prevent the processing of personal information if doing so will cause damage or distress;
- the right to ask for incorrect information to be put right;
- the right to seek compensation if an organisation does not comply with the Data Protection Act 1998 and you personally suffer damage;
- in some circumstances a pupil's parent or legal guardian may have a right to receive a copy of personal data held about a pupil in their legal care. Such cases will be considered on an individual basis where the individual is deemed to have insufficient understanding of their rights under the Act.

You also have the right to ask the Information Commissioner, who enforces and oversees the Data Protection Act 1998, to assess whether or not the processing of personal information is likely to comply with the provisions of the Act.

Seeking further information:

For further information about the personal information collected and its' use, if you have concerns about the accuracy of personal information, or wish to exercise your rights under the Data Protection Act 1998, you should contact;

- the Headteacher of your / your pupil's school;
- Denbighshire County Council on 01824 706101;

- the Welsh Government's Data Protection Officer at: Welsh Government, Cathays Park, Cardiff, CF10 3NQ;
- the Information Commissioner's Office help line can be contacted on 01625 545745;
- information is also available from www.ico.gov.uk